Live market & competitive positioning

Sold prices establish what the property is worth; the live market shows what it is competing against. The assessed range above rests on completed sales - the only firm evidence of value. The asking prices below signal vendor expectation, not achieved value, and are not used in the assessment; they position the recommended guide against the homes a buyer can view today.

The live competitive band - flats currently listed across the district at £450,000 - £775,000, the realistic field for a property of this size and character. Bedroom count alone does not define a comparable (see Basis of assessment): size, condition and location set the price.

Median asking £662,500; average time on the market 159 days. Each listing links to the live portal page - asking price, photographs, time on the market and the marketing agent.

The cost of overpricing. 7 of the 20 listings have sat unsold for 90 days or more - the longest: 227-255 Ilderton Road, SE15 1 at £719,000, listed 807 days; 227-255 Ilderton Road, SE15 1 at £712,000, listed 722 days; Nunhead Green, SE15 3 at £674,995, listed 490 days. Keenly-priced, well-presented stock behaves differently: 3 went to market within the last three weeks, and the only property under offer in the band was priced at £575,000. In this district an over-ambitious asking price does not win a higher sale - it produces a longer, costlier one.

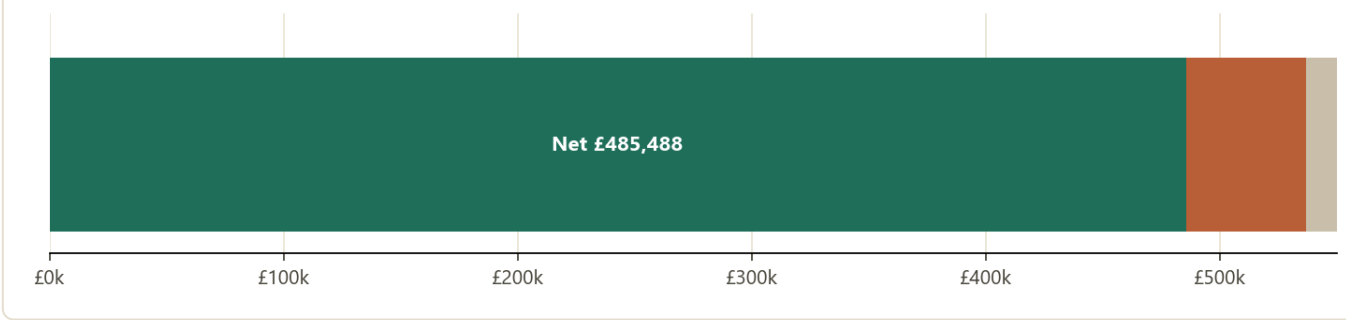

Where this property sits. The recommended Offers Over £500,000 is set at the lower end of the live band and £162,500 below its median asking price - deliberately. Anchored to sold evidence, it positions the property among the most competitively priced homes of its size and character on the market, to draw multiple viewings and competing offers toward the assessed £535,000 - £600,000 target - rather than joining the stalled listings above.

Recommended guide price

Offers Over £500,000, below the assessed range, to invite competing offers toward £535,000 - £600,000.

Net proceeds

Exhibit 3 - Split of a £550,000 sale

£550,000	£13,200	£536,800	£51,312	£485,488
£600,000	£14,400	£585,600	£63,024	£522,576

Indicative CGT at 24% higher-rate residential after the £3,000 annual exempt amount (2025/26); excludes acquisition and refurbishment costs (allowable). Not tax advice.

Limitations

- 1. Floor area is EPC-recorded; a measured survey may differ.
- 2. Refurbishment specification not independently inspected.
- 3. Tier assignment is a draft for agent confirmation.
- 4. Asking prices are not used in the assessed value.
